Happy Birthday Aquarius the Water Bearer! For those born from January 20 - February 19! Key Phrase for Aquarius is "I KNOW"

Aquarius is a Fixed (settled, stubborn), air (thought and intellect) sign located in the Eastern Hemisphere of the chart. Aquarius governs the 11th house of the natural zodiac. The 11th house involves areas of our life such as friendships, organizations, associations, clubs, our hopes and wishes, finances of the employer, our mother's money (it's the 2nd house from the 10th), step children (7th from the 5th) as well as counselors, acquaintances and Astrologers. Aquarians are considered the entrepreneurs and philanthropists of the zodiac. You are rebellious, eccentric and humanitarian. Aquarius in health issues relates to the ankles, calves and nervous system. Illnesses may develop in the central nervous system when Uranus transits make difficult angle/aspect connections in your birth chart. (conjunction, square, opposition, quincunx)

Your ruling planet is the erratic and unpredictable planet Uranus. In traditional astrology, Uranus is considered to be a derelict because he brings sudden, unexpected change into your life. Think of the Tower in the Tarot Deck. When Uranus transits our chart he usually brings some kind of catastrophic change to your life. If you have Uranus strong in your birth chart, you may be drawn to the unusual, creative, non-conforming or the anti-establishment. Aquarians are known for their inventiveness, being a little "off the top" and have no interest in convention. Uranus rules electricity, the Internet and yes, Astrologers! Some people think Astrologers are a little "weird"!! It's not that we are, you know, it's just that we have a unique way of looking at the world and others. Because Aquarian's are so "quirky" they may have a sense or feeling of being outcasts or even of being adopted by their family of origin. They don't always feel they fit in.

Uranus is "electric" and rules the nervous system and the ankles/lower calf. Even the astrological glyph for the sign of Aquarius resembles electric waves. Other health issues to watch during a Uranus transit affecting your birth chart might manifest in nervous energy, sciatic pain, ankle or calf cramps, edginess and nervous irritability and tension.

When Uranus transits in your birth chart and makes a 180 angle with our natal Uranus at approximately age 41-43, we have what is called our Uranus Opposition, or one of our Mid-life crises. Kundalini energy forces expression during this time. During this time we have the need to break free from the status quo. Marriages and relationships come up for review and/or undergo tremendous changes or end completely. Sometimes a marriage will take place while other relationships end or the dynamics change. We may encounter different types of people and associate with others of a different background, culture other than what we are usually comfortable or accustomed with. We seek new experiences and have no desire to be tied down. Any attempt to limit ones individuality will be fought with intense rebellion.

Aquarian, Uranian energy thinks "out of the box". They are our iconoclasts, futurists and inventors.

I'd love to tell you, stay inside the lines.
But something's better on the other side.

– John Mayer - No Such Thing - Room for Squares CD

PALLAS ATHENE - ASSOCIATED WITH AQUARIUS

Pallas Athene, Minerva (Roman), the Greek Goddess of Wisdom, sprang from Zeus's (Jupiter) head fully formed and cloaked in armor. She symbolizes a woman with the intellect of a man. Because she was borne of man and not woman she is symbolic of a "Uranian" type of matriarchal energy.

She was well liked, resourceful and earned the trust of others, especially men. Although a Warrior Woman, she is peaceful in her strength and wisdom. She also represents justice and righteousness and her tendency to fight for the underdog. Her inner courage enables and protects her in surviving battles. She enjoys competition and has skill in most sport. Her association with the Owl, symbolic of inner wisdom and special visual perception, is well deserved. She is "Joan of Arc", the stereotypical creative, intelligent woman with abundance of inner strength.

In your chart, she is symbolic of the way a woman makes her way in a man's world. She symbolizes a woman's relationship with her father. In her wisdom, she also had the role of counselor to her father. You can then substitute this symbolism for the way she treats males in general and in relationship with them. Men with a strong Pallas need to stand up for their rights.

In addition to her war-like nature, "she was credited with inventing weaving, the potter's wheel, spinning, needlework, and was also associated with navigation and agriculture, especially the olive tree". - Lee Lehman, Ph.D., The Ultimate Asteroid Book. Olive flower essence restores energy when you are physically and "mentally" exhausted.

Her ability to plan, strategize and carry out those plans utilizing systems and concepts is her strength. She is indicator of our intelligence and our style of perception. Although perceived to be somber and serious, she is strong and takes decisive action and never whines.

Pallas is also symbolic of the mind/body connection and the healing arts in general. Flashes of insight and genius along with creative works of art are indicative of a prominently placed Pallas.

She is also associated with androgyny. She has the unique ability to express both her feminine and masculine side. Negatively, Pallas would identify more with men than with women and could lose part of her femininity. Since she wore a protective suit of armor to ease her into a man's world, this could symbolize the defense mechanism of intellectualizing and rationalizing situations to place distance between the self and others so as to not experience feeling and pain.

Interestingly, while Pallas was respected and admired by men she was never quite validated by them as a woman. Her creative abilities and intellect were not considered to be "feminine" traits desirable in attracting men, even though she was attractive in appearance. Most daughters/women are taught to play dumb and conditioned by society that women should repress their creative expression to avoid rejection from men. My own mother lectured to never allow a man to know how smart one is, while my father would talk about how men prefer women who are a little helpless, since men have some primitive urge to save women.

A modern day Pallas Athene is a woman of the New Age, unwilling to compromise any part of whom she is to be in a relationship. Equality is her goal in relationships which is why Pallas is also linked to the partnership sign of Libra.

With Pallas' association with Uranus and Aquarius, her prominence in your chart will indicate how you, if you're a woman, operate in a "man's" world, and if you're a man, how you operate in a "woman's" world. It is also symbolic of how you place aside your sexual nature in order to relate platonically to the opposite sex either in a business or friendship.

THE TOWER Card - Number XVI - 16 - Uranus

The Tower card in the Tarot deck is card #16 and symbolizes sudden destruction in our lives. The lightning bolts striking the crown of the tower represents sudden change and events in our lives that we were not prepared for. Change always inspires growth and transformation after the reality and acceptance of those changes is accepted. Reorientation to these changes and challenges is important and the need to realize that the status quo is an "illusion" we create. Nothing remains the same.

The Tower is typically symbolic of the planet Mars, but I always equate this card with Uranus' electrical, lightning response and the impact of sudden awareness in our psyche. It's the "a-ha" card in the Tarot deck.

When Uranus transits your birth chart or if Uranus is significantly placed in your chart, you may experience nervous energy and events may suddenly and unexpectedly unfold in your life.

When The Tower appears in a reading, the truth is exposed, sometimes with life shattering consequences. Oftentimes it will appear in a relationship reading to shed light or reveal the "reality" of the situation. We then gain insight or a heightened awareness after a painful experience. A relationship may end or drastically change course. We are often caught off guard when the Tower appears.

Tarot Card # 17 XVII - The Star - Symbolic of Aquarius

In the Rider Waite version, you see the body of a naked woman holding an urn in each hand. One urn pours water onto the land (material world) while the other urn is poured into a pool of water (spirituality). One of her feet is planted firmly on the ground while the other grazing the surface of the pool. Her nakedness symbolizes acceptance of her self while the pouring of water symbolizes the quest for balancing both our spiritual and material needs.

Card 17 reduced, equals the number 8. Eight is the number of power and authority signifying success and material fortune. Above her head are 8 stars, 7 smaller stars and one large bright star in the center. Stars symbolize the guiding light within all of us that knows that we are protected "under the stars". We need to see the light within ourselves to be "enlightened". This means that you need to let go of your inhibitions (nakedness) and open yourself up to your own truth.

Negatively, and all cards have a positive and negative influence, in your reading this is interpreted as a shutting off of your spirituality or love for another. Perhaps too much self-love becomes narcissistic or this is person always searching or looking towards the distant star or a long-lost or idealistic love. Then the need to stop dreaming and "manifest" your reality is the message. We do this by permitting the "natural" flow of emotions to thaw rather than having them freeze up. Sometimes we freeze our emotions as a defense mechanism so that no one will hurt us.

The Symbol of "The Star" may appear in a reading during a time when spiritual or emotional healing is necessary and to see that we are pure and good under the light of the shining stars above. As above, so below...the stars above mirror the light within each of us.

REST AND CLEANSING MOON (Otter)

In Native American Astrology, those born from January 20th - February 18th are born under the Rest and Cleansing Moon and their animal totem is the Otter. Their color is silver and silver is also their totem in the mineral kingdom. There are of the Butterfly Elemental clan.

The color silver is thought to have magical properties and that "it is the silver chord that holds the soul to the body". - Medicine Wheel Astrology. Otter people are usually very intuitive and have the capacity to become telepathic more easily than most. They are the visionaries and love heated discussions and intellectual debate. Otters are considered to be the organizers of the animal kingdom and they maintain elaborate dens, like a house, broken into rooms.

According to the Medicine Cards by Jamie Sams & David Carson, Otter is Woman Medicine and lessons in female energy. Otter is very caring of its young and will play with them for hours. They live on land but always have a place near the water. Otters are very curious animals and are in constant motion. They are adventurous and friendly. Otter people express joy for others and are never jealous or "catty". They are feminine creatures, sleek and gentle.

January/February, 2006

Our Moon changes signs approximately every 2 ½ days.

January 29, 2006 - New Moon - 09 Aquarius 32 - Friendships, hopes, wishes, the future, groups and organizations and counselors are highlighted.

January 29, 2006 - Chinese New Year: Fire Dog. Those born in the year of the Dog are cheerful, direct, responsible, honest and loyal. They make good companions and trustworthy friends and are excellent conversationalists. Dogs are so enthusiastic they can be a bit overwhelming. Although they have difficulty finding the right partner, because they are loyal, once they have found a mate, they remain faithful for life. Dogs are very hard workers. They tend to take their time in warming up to others. Dog years follow Rooster years and will appear in 12 year cycles.

February 3rd Venus turns direct at 16 Capricorn 06'. Venus is daughters, money, values, love, beauty, art, and relating. Venus in Capricorn desires commitment and monogamy. When Venus worked her way backwards, she retraced her steps in Capricorn and gave us the opportunity to reevaluate what truly makes us happy in our personal relationship. What we value and how we value ourselves is highlighted during this time. Often old loves return to resolve unfinished business. Now is the time to make your relationship decisions and act on them. Feel free to make those purchases in a couple of weeks once Venus has left her shadow.

VALENTINE'S DAY - FEBRUARY 14, 2006

EROS - ASTEROID #433

Discussion of the month of February would not be complete without having discussed a couple of asteroids that relate to our "lovers" holiday - Valentine's Day!

"Eros has sex for the intimacy and power it brings and for the potential to transform by touching the divine soul of another, at whatever cost." - Kim Falconer's article in Dell Horoscope, 2004. It is Eros who soars all over the earth, equipped with his bow and arrow, "bewitching" all the arrow strikes. The symbolism is such that erotic love and passion strikes us when we least expect us. The way we respond to these sudden feelings are dependent on our temperament and how evolved we are. Do our lives become chaotic and unpredictable? Do we become obsessed and possessed by these passions? When Eros transits our birth chart, it may indicate areas of our lives where erotic love and passion may awaken and have the power to transform us.

Martha Lang-Wescott, in her book Mechanics of the Future - Asteroids, says this of Eros: "Eros represents what turns us on and defines sexual interest. It is the essential element of the survival instinct, and for this reason, it is often prominent in death charts when the "drive to love" is shadowed by transit and/or directions or progressions.

Do you know where Asteroid Eros is located in your birth chart? In synastry; chart compatibility, if your Eros is conjunct or opposite your partners, Moon, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Neptune, Uranus, Pluto or their Name asteroid (yes, most of you have an asteroid named after yourself!) this will prove another indication of erotic/sexual attraction/love.

On February 14th, asteroid Eros will be transiting 2 degrees of Pisces in close proximity to the Mercury/Uranus conjunction at 9 Pisces.

February 18, 2006 - The Sun enters Pisces - Happy Birthday Pisces! We will discuss Pisces in next month's issue.

VALENTINE - ASTEROID # 447

As synchronicity would have it, Valentine is asteroid number 447. In numerology, this number adds up to the number 6! ( $4+4+7=15$  or  $1+5 = 6$ ) The number 6 just happens to be the Lovers Card in the Tarot deck and symbolic of compassionate love, service and often the "Soul Mate". Astrologically, asteroid Valentine has a strong relationship to the 7th house of one-to-one relationships. These aren't only "love" relationships and can indicate business partnerships, open enemies in a law suit. ie: the other lawyer.

When we were children, we would often send those cute little "Valentine's" in the shape of a heart to the one we desire and love. Asteroid Valentine can indicate something we send to another or receive from another ie: letters, legal documents or even junk e-mail!

Where is asteroid Valentine located in your birth chart?

Transiting Valentine will be at 18 Sagittarius on Valentine's Day, February 14, 2006.

SABIAN SYMBOL'S:

For those of you unfamiliar with the Sabian Symbol, the original Sabian Symbols were written in 1931 by Marc Edmond Jones. Dane Rudhyar later revised the symbols and others have re-interpreted the symbols periodically. Lynda Hill writes one of my favorite modern interpretations. The basis of these symbols is derived from the 360 degrees in the zodiacal circle. Each sign of the zodiac: Aries, Taurus, Gemini and so forth, is comprised of 30 degrees. Since there are 12 signs in the zodiac, that would be 12 signs X 30 degrees = 360 degrees. There are 360 Sabian Symbols and each symbol coincides with and describes each degree of the zodiac. If you know your birth chart, utilizing these symbols for each of your planetary placements is rather telling and will provide you with greater insight into your own character traits and motivations.

NEW MOON - JANUARY 29, 2006 - 09 Aquarius 32"

New Moon = New Beginnings. New Moons augur a time to start new projects. Seeds (ideas and positive energy) planted during a New Moon will culminate and flourish during the Full Moon.

SABIAN SYMBOL for 10 Aquarius:

A MAN WHO HAD FOR A TIME BECOME THE EMBODIMENT OF AN IDEAL IS MADE TO REALIZE THAT AS A PERSON HE IS NOT HIS IDEAL

This is an important symbol. This man has come to the realization that he can no longer live up to another's expectations or an ideal. This appears to be a "rude awakening". Often enough it is difficult to live up to our own expectations, let alone the expectations others place upon us, especially if they have placed us on a pedestal or have viewed us through rose-colored glasses. This symbol is either one of self discovery or the shattering of illusions about another. Feelings of failure or depression are likely and it could mean that someone has disappointed us in some way.

Issues of self worth and self esteem are likely especially since Venus continues to move backwards in her retrograde motion. Many of you have been feeling unloved and have reevaluated not only what you love, desire and value in partnerships but also about staying true to yourself regardless of what others throw at you.

FULL MOON - FEBRUARY 13, 2006 - 25 Leo 20'

With a Full Moon, we see a culmination or coming to a head the seeds planted during the previous New Moon cycle. Lunar ruled Cancer is usually more affected by a Full Moon and especially in her own sign. Since the February 13th Full Moon falls in the sign of Leo, this lunar energy will be emphasized. Leo is a dynamic fire sign and resides in the 5th house of the natural zodiac, ruled by our Sun. In the sign of Leo, this Full Moon is more emotionally intensified. Children, romance, creativity, ego issues, gambling and speculative ventures will be highlighted. This Full Moon falls right before Valentine's Day!

SABIAN SYMBOL FOR 25 LEO:

A LARGE CAMEL CROSSING A VAST AND FORBIDDING DESERT

Camels are interesting animals. Upon appearance they are slow and almost clumsy. However, they have tremendous stores of energy and perseverance. They can cross deserts, carry heavy loads and "journey" vast distances.

This symbol tells you that you may have a bit longer to go on your journey yet you have the reserves and perseverance to obtain your goals. You can feel confident that these daunting tasks may seem impossible to others are easier and familiar to you. Journeying to the other side, endurance and tests or lessons are possible.

Where does this symbol fall in your birth chart?

NEW MOON - FEBRUARY 28, 2006 - 09 Pisces 16"

SYMBOL FOR 10 PISCES

AN AVIATOR IN THE CLOUDS

Is your head in the clouds? Is there a reason you are not seeing your situation clearly? Do you feel cut off or are you experiencing altered perception?

You may need to rise about your problems. Perhaps you are unable to see through the "fog" or are experiencing a disconnect. Sometimes when life becomes overwhelming there is a need to detach in order to really see your situation clearly.

SOUL MATES/RELATIONSHIPS:

"Ever wonder why I never really truly connect
Although my eyes are open
I can hold your gaze
But I am never connected
Never connected

I am famous for my generosity
They say I am the kindest
But it is easier to Give than receive love
Give than receive love"

- Darkness by Darren Hayes & Robert Conley

The Aquarius/Leo - Ascendant/Descendant Relationship Axis (1st house/7th house)

As mentioned in past issues, knowing your partners 7th house cusp (the relationship house) and the ruler of that house will indicate the type of partner you may attract or are attracted to and the method of relating within a relationship.

The Ascendant or Rising sign is the sign rising on the horizon at the time of birth. This is the face we show the world, our "mask" for which our Sun hides behind. This is our outer personality, temperament and disposition as well as how we experienced our early home environment growing up. It is the way others see us and also gives indication of our physical appearance. The ruler of the Ascendant and the aspects (connections to other planets in your birth chart) further delineate and define your physical appearance.

The Descendant, or 7th house cusp, its ruler and the aspects it makes in your birth chart, is symbolic of the type of partner you are attracted to. The 7th house is the house of all partnerships including marriage and legal contracts yet also considered the house of open enemies or the Defendant in a law suit.

In relationships, Aquarius has Uranus as the modern ruler and with karmic Saturn as the ancient ruler. If you have an Aquarius Ascendant, you appear honest and truthful. You make friends easily and are an inventive conversationalist. Because you are a fixed sign, although you are quite fair and tolerant you can also be very inflexible and impatient. Interestingly, you are so friendly and enjoy the company of friends and friendly banter yet you are completely happy alone.

With Solar ruled Leo on the descendant you seek a loyal, outgoing, confident partner, one who will be your best friend. Attraction to a partner with those qualities who is outgoing and a good parent is likely. Independence and not feeling tied down is critical for Aquarians.

One of the first things you could look at when you have the birth data of a potential partner, is their Sun placement since the Sun rules your descendant.

It is also possible for an Aquariun Ascendant to attract a partner who has Uranus or Saturn prominent in their chart. Prominent Uranus or Saturn would be in aspect to the Sun, Moon, Mars or Venus or elevated in conjunction to the MC (10th house cusp) or IC (4th house cusp) conjunct or ruling their Ascendant or Descendant or Sun sign in Aquarius.

Knowing the date, time and place of birth is important in making the determination of the Ascendant or Rising sign, the sign rising on the horizon at the time of birth. This cusp sets up all the other house cusps that are the divisions of the houses or areas of life.

Next month the Pisces/Virgo Axis will be highlighted.
